On behalf of the department, we are grateful to provide our students with an opportunity to exhibit outside the school. The event was so much fun and we look forward to future collaborations.

The Star Library Network: free solar eclipse glasses

The Middlebury Public Library received 300 solar eclipse glasses to share with the community free of charge from The Star Library Network beginning April 1, 2024 while supplies lasted.

Surrounding town libraries received much larger quantities. Southbury Public Library received 500 free glasses and gave away all in March. Woodbury Public Library required reservations for up to 6 pairs of glasses for pick up in April. Prospect Public Library restricted two pairs of solar eclipse glasses to residents only with an active library card. Town population size determined the quantities sent.

A total solar eclipse on April 8, 2024 is when the moon passes between the sun and Earth, completely blocking the face of the sun. After the total solar eclipse on April 8, the next total solar eclipse that can be seen from the contiguous United States will be on August 23, 2044.

Study Room Policy

The Middlebury Public Library provides five study rooms to serve the needs of the library and the Middlebury community. Use of the study rooms is governed by the policy established by the Library Board of Trustees and any applicable rules or regulations adopted by the library. The Library Director, as the executor of the policy for the Board of Trustees, has discretion in determining what use is in the best interest of the library and is authorized to act accordingly, including limiting the use of the study rooms by patrons whose activities interfere with library operations, adversely affect public safety, or cause public disturbances. The Board of Trustees may modify, amend or supplement this policy, as it deems necessary and appropriate.

Priority for Use

Study rooms are available in two-hour intervals on a first-come, first-served basis at no charge. Extra time allotted for study room sessions will be accommodated if there are no requests for use of the room within the next half hour. Patrons who have been allotted additional time in study rooms beyond the two-hour limit will be asked to vacate if all study rooms are filled and a new patron wishes to utilize a room.

Limits of Use

Study rooms must be signed out with either a valid Connecticut library card registered in the Middlebury Public Library’s system or a valid driver’s license.

The patron who signs for the room is expected to remain in the room at all times. Should they need to leave the room for any reason, it is expected they return in no more than 10 minutes. Each study room has a capacity for one patron.

There is no guarantee of a silent atmosphere inside each study room due to their proximity to one another; however, a patron of each study room is asked to be respectful of other patrons in adjacent study rooms and of the Middlebury Public Library’s Code of Conduct Policy regarding noise.

The two study rooms in the Children’s area of the library are for the exclusive use of patrons 12 to 18 years of age.

Parents or guardians, not the library or its staff, are responsible for the Internet information selected or accessed by their children on their own devices while using the study room.

The study rooms are not available for the purpose of operating a business including tutoring for profit, selling merchandise or services, soliciting for later sales, or for social events, or artistic creativity. Study rooms are available free of charge for educational use only.

Room Occupancy

Study rooms must be vacated fifteen minutes prior to library closing, or at the end of the scheduled session, whichever comes first.
No food or drink permitted in the study room with the exception of a water bottle.
No cell phone use permitted in the study room.
Personal headphones must be used for online courses/audio learning.
The Middlebury Public Library’s Code of Conduct Policy applies to use of study rooms.

Procedure
Upon arrival, patrons requesting the use of a study room are required to complete the Study Room form and hand to a staff member at the Information Desk. Availability will be reviewed at this time and proper identification will need to be provided to the library staff. Study rooms must be signed out with either a valid Connecticut library card registered in the Middlebury Public Library’s system or a valid driver’s license.

Study room patrons are asked to notify library staff when the session is finished. The room will then be inspected for condition.
Patrons may not rearrange library furniture. Signs and decorations may not be taped or stapled to walls or doors. Use of glue, crayons, paint, markers, tape, glitter, wax, candles (lit or unlit), and other craft supplies is prohibited. Study rooms are to be left as they are found. Waste must be placed in appropriate garbage and/or recycling receptacles.

Equipment
The library does not provide equipment and/or storage.

Failure to Comply
Failure to comply with library policies, rules, and regulations (including this policy) will be grounds for suspension of study room privileges for up to six months.

Damages and Liability
The library is not responsible for possessions left in a study room or moved by staff to another location. Once a room has been vacated for more than 10 minutes, the library reserves the right to remove the patron’s belongings without assuming responsibility or liability thereof and to reassign the study room to an available status.

Any patron using the study room shall be held responsible for willful or accidental damage to the library building, grounds, collections, or furniture caused by the patron.

Patrons will be held accountable for violations of this policy or the Middlebury Public Library’s Code of Conduct Policy.

REVIEWED AND ADOPTED:

This policy is subject to continuous review.
